BSF jawan shoots himself with service rifle in Barmer

Barmer, A Border Security Force (BSF) jawan allegedly shot himself dead with his service rifle along the Rajasthan border near Munabao in Barmer district. The incident took place Saturday evening under the jurisdiction of Gadara Road police station area in Barmer.

The deceased man was identified as Pradeep Kumar, 38, of Uttarakhand. He was posted at India-Pakistan international border near Aldi village in Barmer. Amar Singh, the station house officer at Gadara Road police station, while confirming the report, said that after the autopsy, the body was handed over to BSF officials. It will be dispatched to its hometown in Uttarakhand. Singh said that Kumar was on duty from 1pm due to family issues. They said his wife informed them of a family dispute.

BFS officials said that Kumar may have ended his life due to family issues. They said his wife informed them of a family dispute.

Ambulance rams truck, patient among four killed, three injured

Patna, At least four persons, including a patient and three of her family members, were killed and three persons were injured after an ambulance carrying them rammed a parked truck in Nalanda district on Monday morning. The incident took place on national highway 31 around 7.30am near Gaupur village under the jurisdiction of Chandi police station, 110km southeast of the state capital Patna. The victims—all residents of Chainpur village—were travelling in the ambulance that was on its way to Patna from Nalanda, police said. Injured persons alleged that the ambulance driver was inebriated. They said that the patient was referred by doctors at Biharsagar Hospital to Vardhaman Institute of Medical Sciences, Patpuri. "But the driver was forcibly taking us to Patna," they alleged.

Confirming the four deaths in the mishap, Nalanda SP Nilesh Kumar said, "The ambulance was carrying a patient (Sobha Devi), who was severely injured in the head after falling from the roof of her house late Sunday night. She was accompanied by six family members. The driver fled the spot after the accident and a manhunt has been launched to nab him."
